Winner Notification

- Winners' certificates/awards will be mailed no later than May 31, 2010.
- Winners List will be posted on our Web site — www.writers-editors.com — around May 31, 2010.

Entry Fees

- Entry fee of $5 (active or new CNW/FFWA members) or $10 (non-members) must accompany each fiction/nonfiction entry under 3,000 words
- Entry fee of $10 (members) or $20 (non-members) must accompany each entry of 3,000 words to 5,000 words
- Entry fee of $3 (members) or $5 (non-members) must accompany each poem entered.

General Guidelines

- Entries must be unpublished or self-published – with the exception of Category A - the Nonfiction/Previously Published Article/Essay/Book Chapter category.
- Previously Published Article/Column/Nonfiction Book Chapter (category A) entries may be submitted in double-spaced manuscript format or copies of published material – if writer's name is unrecognizable. Only one book chapter per entry.
- Length: Maximum length: 5,000 words; plus, children's literature entries must adhere to typical type, age and length guidelines in order to be judged favorably.
- Enter as many manuscripts in as many categories as you wish. Entry fee and a separate Official Entry Form must accompany each entry (and each poem); photocopies of the entry form are acceptable. Send only one copy of each entry.
- Entries not conforming to contest rules will be disqualified; entry fees will not be returned. Entries beyond the 5,000-word limit will be judged only on the first 5,000 words submitted. Do not submit complete book – one book chapter per entry only.
- Use paper clips only. Do not staple manuscript pages, entry forms or checks. No cover page needed.
- Author's name must NOT appear on any entry. If on self- or previously-published work, cover name so it is not readable.
- Indicate Division and Category of each entry on upper right corner of first page of manuscript.
- Submit text only in a readable font, such as Times Roman or Arial.

Other Information

- Acknowledgment of receipt of manuscripts will be made only if you enclose a self-addressed postcard (with adequate postage). Manuscripts CANNOT be returned; therefore, legible photocopies or computer printouts are suggested for submission.
- For list of winners, send self-addressed, stamped #10 (business size 4"x9½") envelope marked "winners" on the outside. Winners list will be mailed by May 31, plus will be posted on www.writers-editors.com. (Only one envelope per entrant needed.)
- Neither entries nor winners will be published in an anthology or other publication; authors retain all rights to their works.

Specific Division/Category Guidelines

● Nonfiction Division

- ✓ Previously Published must show name of magazine, newspaper or Web site in which it was published.
- ✓ Essay/Column can be opinion, personal experience, nostalgia, think-piece, or humor.

● Fiction Division

- ✓ For Short Story, indicate whether Literary, Mystery, Romance, Science Fiction, Fantasy, Western on first page.
- ✓ Indicate book title plus chapter title or # on each Fiction/Novel Chapter entry and entry form (multiple chapter entries require a separate entry form and separate entry fee for each chapter).

● Children's Literature Division

- ✓ Indicate the age group of your readers and the word count on first page of entry.
- ✓ Also on the first page, specify the category of children's literature: Poem, Short Story, Book Chapter, Article, etc.
- ✓ Do not include art, illustrations, or bound copies of a book. Submit a book chapter only. Entries cannot be returned.

● Poetry Division

- ✓ Include the poem's line count and whether Free Verse or Traditional on the manuscript page.
- ✓ For traditional metered and syllabic poems, specify the form, such as Sonnet, Villanelle, Sestina, or Renga.
- ✓ Each entry must be a single poem, not a book of verse.

See Web site for additional guidelines and tips that do not fit here.

Judging Criteria

- Presentation (format, follows rules, neatness, spelling, punctuation, grammar, print quality).
- Suitability (correct category, correct age group and appropriate length if children's division).
- Tightness, clarity, structure, strength of lead/beginning, transitions, impact, satisfactory close.
- Nonfiction: Logic; use of quotes, statistics and anecdotes; order; provocative idea; lead and close.
- Fiction: Characterization, conflict, dialogue, plotting, beginning, ending, figures of speech.
- Poetry: Fresh concept, cadence or rhythmic beat, sound echoes, any other device (such as figurative language) that appeals to the imagination or engages the reader's senses; and for traditional verse, adherence to form.
